CARRIZO SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

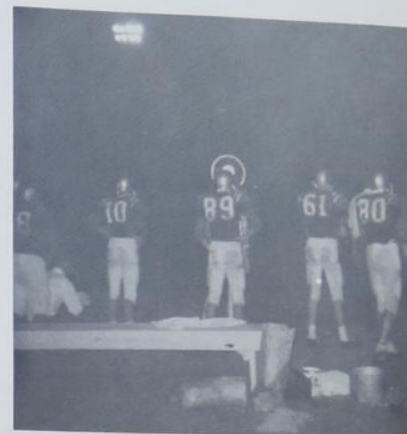

An empty hall leads to an empty classroom and eventually a world empty of knowledge. But man can fill this gap by learning to participate, to be curious, to work for a goal, and to live as an individual with his fellow man.

The Concentration . . .

Concern . . .

Unique For Each Individual

Involvement . . .

Leisure . . .

Foreword

The students of C.S.H.S. have a great many things in common, and yet each individual differs in many respects from the others. The Seniors lead the school with an air of determination and confidence. The Juniors are resigned. They proudly spend countless hours for the Prom. The Sophomores are nonchalant. The Freshmen have a certain preoccupied air, possibly resulting from the problems and adjustments they face in their first year of high school.

It takes many individuals to comprise each class and many classes to compose a school. Together they help make C.S.H.S., the school that it is.

Dedication

We, the 1967 Wildcat Staff, in recognition of one, who has so unselfishly sacrificed his time and effort, taught us the true meaning of sportsmanship, the true value of self-respect and pride, the true importance of school spirit, and who has shared our disappointments as well as our victories. Because every student of C.S.H.S. whether he be a participant in sports or not, appreciates deeply the service he has rendered the school; so it is with deep affection and gratitude, that we dedicate the 1967 Wildcat to

Superintendent's Message

We all owe a debt of gratitude to the Annual Staff and Sponsor for the fine job preserving for us, in these pages, some of the events of a most important time of our lives.

In later years we may go back through these pages and bring back to our memory many cherished moments.

I would like to commend all who have had a part in the production of this Annual. You have done your job and we appreciate the fine way you went about it.

Sincerely,

W. S. Taylor

Principal's Message

JOHN M. ALBRECHT
Principal

The primary object of Carrizo Springs High School is to help boys and girls live a richer, more wholesome life, satisfactory to themselves and useful to mankind. May I say students, never let anything or anyone cause you to lose sight of this goal.

In later years may you remember Carrizo Springs High School and profit by her teachings.

As our pathways of life separate us, may the best of everything be yours.

The purpose of the club is to fill a gap for the student who wishes an extra activity in his regular science class. The club hopes to stimulate interest in careers in Science and to give a boost to those students already interested in a scientific career. It hopes to show the importance of Science in our democracy and how essential it is in our everyday life.

Farewell

Recorded in the 1967 Wildcat are the events of the past year--the tenseness of a free shot; the fight song; a pass on the first down; a half-time show; Wildcat Stadium silent now, but knowing the sound of a cheering crowd, a band; the desire to win, the joy of belonging; a time of study, of comprehension; a chemistry experiment; a research paper; the wisdom of understanding; the reward of knowledge--All these memories and many more recorded in this book are our last memories of "THAT WONDERFUL YEAR."
